

Nvidia value hits $3tn, overtaking Apple

Nvidia's market has surged past $3tn to overtake Apple as the world's second most valuable company, following a year of incredible growth driven by demand for its artificial intelligence chips

LARGEST U.S. COMPANIES

(by market capitalisation, $ trillion)

Microsoft $3.151

NVIDIA $3.011

Apple $3.003

Alphabet (Google) $2.177

Amazon $1.886

Meta Platforms $1.255

Berkshire Hathaway $0.885

Eli Lilly $0.790

Broadcom $0.655

JPMorgan Chase $0.566

Jun 5: Nvidia's share price rises more than 5% to over $1,224.40

► Chief executive Jensen Huang claims Nvidia's data centre chips will spur the "next industrial revolution"

NVIDIA

