

Today in History

July 14, 2023

▲ Actors joined screenwriters in Hollywood's biggest strike in 60 years. The four-month strike led to a $6.5 billion loss to the economy of Southern California

1933: Nazi Germany's eugenics programme called for sterilization of citizens with "genetic disorders"

1992: The Open Source operating system revolution began when the Unix-like 386BSD was released

1999: The European Union voted to end the three-year ban on British beef exports caused by the BSE crisis

2014: The Costa Concordia, which sank off an Italian island in 2012, was refloated before being scrapped