

Huge fire rages in northern California

Thousands of firefighters are battling a rapidly growing wildfire that has burned an area larger than the city of Los Angeles

● Active fires (as of Jul 29)

OREGON

CALIFORNIA

Redding

Chico

Sacramento

Stockton

San Francisco

San Jose

Fresno

Park Fire: Sixth-largest wildfire in California history has burned more than 370,000 acres (150,000 hectares). More than 100 structures destroyed and over 8,000 people told to evacuate

Paradise: Evacuation warning issued for town where 2018 blaze killed 85 people and destroyed 11,000 homes

SIERRA NEVADA

NEVADA

100km
60 miles

PACIFIC
OCEAN

