

How territory has shifted in Ukraine war

Ukraine marks its Independence Day after two and a half years of war with almost 20% of the country under Russian control and thought to be holding over 1,250 square km of Russian territory

Jan 2022

Feb-Mar 2022: Invasion

Apr-Nov 2022

Crimea annexed by Russia 2014, Russian proxy republics in Donbas (Luhansk and Donetsk)

Russian president Vladimir Putin launches full-scale invasion to "demilitarise and denazify Ukraine"

Russia annexes Luhansk, Donetsk, Zaporizhzhya and Kherson. Ukraine forces Russian troops out of Chernihiv, Kyiv, Kharkiv and Kherson

Aug 2024

CASUALTIES: UKRAINE

Military: Unknown
Civilians: 35,160 including 11,520 dead

RUSSIA

Military: Estimated 550,000 including 120,000 dead

Sources: Institute for the Study of War, BBC, Associated Press, OHCHR

© GRAPHIC NEWS