

Middle East flights suspended

Concerns over a wider war in the Middle East have prompted airlines to cancel flights to Israel, Lebanon and Jordan amid a cross-border escalation with the Lebanese group Hezbollah

■ Aegean Airlines: Flights to Amman cancelled until Sep 30, Beirut until Oct 1 and Tel Aviv until Oct 26

■ Air Algerie: Flights to and from Lebanon cancelled until further notice

■ airBaltic: Flights to and from Tel Aviv cancelled until Sep 1

■ Air India: Suspended flights to and from Tel Aviv until further notice

■ Cathay Pacific: Flights to Tel Aviv cancelled until Mar 2025

■ KLM: Flights to and from Tel Aviv cancelled until Oct 26

■ easyJet: Stopped flying to and from Tel Aviv in April – will resume flights in Mar 2025

■ LOT Polish Airlines: Flights to Tel Aviv suspended until Sep 1, to Beirut until Sep 2

■ Lufthansa: Flights to Tel Aviv and Tehran, Iran, suspended until Sep 2. Flights to Beirut suspended until Sep 30

■ Ryanair: Cancelled flights to and from Tel Aviv until Sep 30

■ Royal Jordanian: Flights to Beirut cancelled until further notice

■ SunExpress: Suspended flights to Beirut until Dec 17

■ TAROM: Beirut flights suspended until Sep 2

■ Transavia: Flights to Tel Aviv suspended until Mar 31, 2025

■ United Airlines: Flights to Tel Aviv suspended until further notice