

Ukraine faces major government reshuffle

The largest shake-up of Ukraine's wartime administration comes at a critical moment, as Russian forces push forward in the east and unleash new waves of aerial attacks on cities

HIGHEST-PROFILE RESIGNATIONS

1 Dmytro Kuleba, Minister of Foreign Affairs: Has led drive to maintain Western support

2 Oleksandr Kamyshin, Minister for Strategic Industries: Has overseen production of weapons domestically

3 Iryna Vereshchuk, Deputy Prime Minister: In charge of reintegration of occupied territories

4 Denys Maliuska, Justice Minister: Has led programme to recruit convicts to military

Lviv: Drone and missile attack kills seven people, including three children

 Russian strikes, Sep 3-4

UKRAINE

RUSSIA

Kyiv

Ukrainian incursion

Area held by Russia

Poltava: Strike on military institute kills at least 53 people in Russia's deadliest single bombardment in 2024

Kryvyi Rih: Five people wounded in missile strike

CRIMEA
BLACK SEA

200km
125 miles