

Today in History

November 29, 1394

▲ Korean ruler Yi Seong-gye, founder of the Joseon Dynasty, moved his capital from Kaesong to Hanyang, now known as Seoul. Yi reigned from 1392 to 1398

1814: The Times of London became the first newspaper to be printed with steam power instead of hand presses

1864: U.S. troops killed at least 400 unarmed Indians at the Sand Creek Massacre in Colorado

1954: Ellis Island, through which over 20 million immigrants passed into the United States from 1892, was closed

2004: China signed an agreement with the 10 ASEAN nations, creating the world's largest free trade zone