

Manchester United appoint Ruben Amorim

Ruben Amorim has been named new head coach at Old Trafford – replacing Erik ten Hag – after agreeing a deal until June 2027. His first fixture is set to be against Ipswich Town, on November 24

NEW LEADER

Amorim becomes sixth permanent Man Utd coach since Sir Alex Ferguson

Man Utd: Managerial history

		W	D	L
Erik ten Hag	2022-24	72	20	36
Ralf Rangnick*	2021-22	11	9	9
Ole Gunnar Solskjaer	2018-21	92	35	41
José Mourinho	2016-18	84	31	29
Louis van Gaal	2014-16	54	24	25
David Moyes	2013-14	26	10	15
Sir Alex Ferguson	1986-2013	895	323	272

■ Trophies: Ten Hag guided United to League Cup (2023) and FA Cup (2024) success

■ Form: Second-lowest Premier League points tally after nine games (11pts) and struggling in UEFA Europa League

■ Ownership: Despite Sir Jim Ratcliffe purchasing 27.7% minority stake in club, fortunes at Old Trafford have continued on downward trajectory

TRANSFER POLICY

United splurged €660m on players in Ten Hag era – with net transfer fee spend of €475m, second only to Chelsea

NET TRANSFER FEE SPEND (since 2022)

Total expenditure minus income from transfers

Chelsea	€790m
Manchester United	€475m
Al-Hilal	€454m
Paris St-Germain	€431m
Tottenham	€386m
Arsenal	€354m
Newcastle	€272m

Most expensive

Most expensive	Fee
Antony	€95m
Rasmus Højlund	€73.90m
Casemiro	€70.65m
Mason Mount	€64.2m
Leny Yoro	€62m
Lisandro Martínez	€57.37m
André Onana	€50.2m
Manuel Ugarte	€50m