

Trump vows U.S. tariffs on Canada and Mexico

President-elect Donald Trump has threatened to impose 25% tariffs on imports from Canada and Mexico, and an extra 10% on Chinese goods, unless they stop the flow of illegal immigrants and drugs into the U.S.

U.S. TRADE IN GOODS

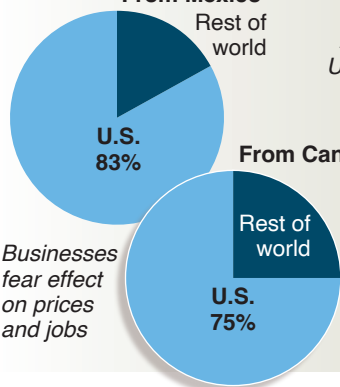

Imports from: China 433,299.4 Mexico 498,240.7 Canada 415,251.6

Exports to: China 146,485.6 Mexico 332,855.1 Canada 349,700.9

Tariffs could violate terms of USMCA trade deal Trump signed in 2020, and lead to collapse in U.S.-China trade

PROPORTION OF EXPORTS TO U.S.

Businesses fear effect on prices and jobs

Breakdown of exports from Canada to U.S.

Canada supplies over 20% of all crude oil that U.S. refineries process – 70% to Midwest where prices would soar

