

Israeli raids target Syrian military assets

Israel has launched hundreds of strikes against military facilities across Syria, saying it wants to keep weapons away from extremists following the collapse of the Assad regime

Latakia: Sea and air attacks target Syrian naval vessels and port

Israeli strikes since Dec 8*
Targets include airfields, military vehicles, air defence sites, arms production facilities and ammunition stockpiles

Israeli military incursion
Aims to establish "sterile defensive area" in southern Syria without permanent Israeli presence

*Some symbols represent strikes on multiple locations

