

Powerful earthquake kills scores in Tibet

At least 95 people have been killed after a major earthquake struck the northern foothills of the Himalayas near one of Tibet's holiest cities.

Tremors were also felt in Nepal, Bhutan and parts of India

Jan 7, 09:00 local time:
7.1 magnitude quake hits
Tingri county at depth of 10km, according to U.S.
Geological Survey

Shigatse: Traditional seat of Panchen Lama – key figure of Tibetan Buddhism whose spiritual authority is second only to Dalai Lama