

Mark Carney is Canada's next PM

Mark Carney has won the Liberal leadership race to succeed Justin Trudeau as Canada's prime minister by a landslide – amassing 86% of the ballots in the first round of voting

Mark Carney:
Former Governor of Bank of Canada (during 2008 financial crisis), former Governor of Bank of England (during Brexit), and most recently UN Special Envoy for Climate Action and Finance

Carney is expected to be sworn in as PM in coming days and will lead Liberals in next general election – expected to be called in coming weeks

Now prime minister-designate, he has never served in elected office before

Chrystia Freeland:
Member of Parliament for University-Rosedale and former Deputy Prime Minister

Karina Gould:
Member of Parliament for Burlington and former Leader of Government in House of Commons

Frank Baylis:
Entrepreneur, human rights advocate and former member of Parliament for Pierrefonds-Dollard

Total does not add up to 100% due to rounding