

Vance makes “aggressive” visit to Greenland

U.S. Vice President JD Vance is to visit the Space Base in Greenland – over which the U.S. has jurisdiction – in what is being seen as a form of hybrid warfare designed to destabilise the strategic Danish territory

TERRITORIAL CLAIMS IN ARCTIC

- 1 U.S.
- 2 Russia
- 3 Canada

Nautical boundaries —
Contested —

- 4 Denmark
- 5 Norway
- 6 Iceland

Trade routes

- ◆ North west
- ◆ Transpolar
- ◆ North east

Thousands of km shorter than Suez or Panama Canal routes

Arctic resources

Estimated 13% of world's undiscovered oil, 30% of natural gas

★ Pituffik: Upgraded Early Warning Radar able to detect Russian, Chinese missile launches. Manned by 150 U.S. Air Force and Space Force personnel

Visit by high-level U.S. delegation including VP JD Vance – to receive briefing on Arctic security – branded “aggressive” by Denmark

