

World's highest bridge set to open in China

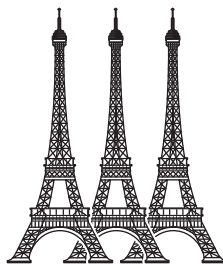

After a three and a half year construction, the Huajiang Grand Canyon Bridge over the Beipan River in the mountainous Guizhou province of China is set to open in June, rising 625 metres above river level

Akashi-Kaikyo Bridge, Japan: World's longest suspension bridge

Steel truss suspension bridge weighs 22,000 tons – three Eiffel Towers

Length 3.9km