

Harvard reels from foreign student ban

President Trump's revocation of Harvard University's Student and Exchange Visitor Program certificate is a blow to a major revenue source for the world-famous institution

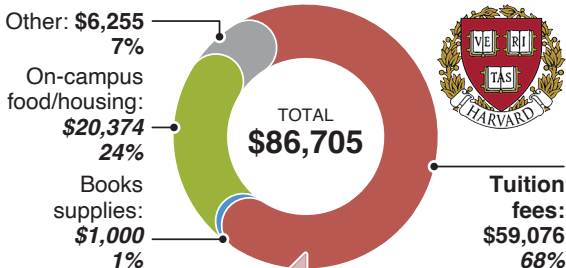

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS AT HARVARD

Some 6,793 foreign students hailing from more than 140 countries were enrolled at Harvard University for 2024-25 academic year

COST OF ATTENDING HARVARD

Full-time, first-time, degree/certificate-seeking undergraduates, academic year 2023-24

International students are a great source of income for Harvard because they are more likely to pay full tuition fees rather than rely on grants – essentially subsidising other students who do receive scholarships