

Gunman attacks Austrian school

A shooter killed at least nine people and wounded many others in an attack at a secondary school in Graz, Austria's second-largest city. The perpetrator is also reported dead

RECENT SCHOOL SHOOTINGS IN EUROPE

■ Mar 2023, Germany: Gunman in Hamburg shoots dead six people and one unborn child before killing himself at a Jehovah's Witness Kingdom Hall

■ May, Serbia: 13-year-old student at Belgrade school kills nine fellow pupils and one security guard. Next day 20-year-old man kills eight in village south of capital

■ Dec, Czechia: 24-year-old student shoots dead his father and 14 people at his Prague university before killing himself

■ Feb 2025, Sweden: 35-year-old former student opens fire with multiple weapons, killing 10 people and wounding six others at adult education centre in city of Orebro. Perpetrator kills himself