

Voice recorder from Air India flight found

Investigators are to study the pilots' final words for clues about the cause of the plane crash, after recovering the cockpit voice recorder from the wreckage. At least 270 people died, most of them passengers

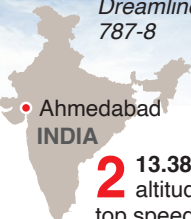

Boeing
Dreamliner
787-8

Investigation reportedly focused on engine failure and issues with wing flaps and landing gear

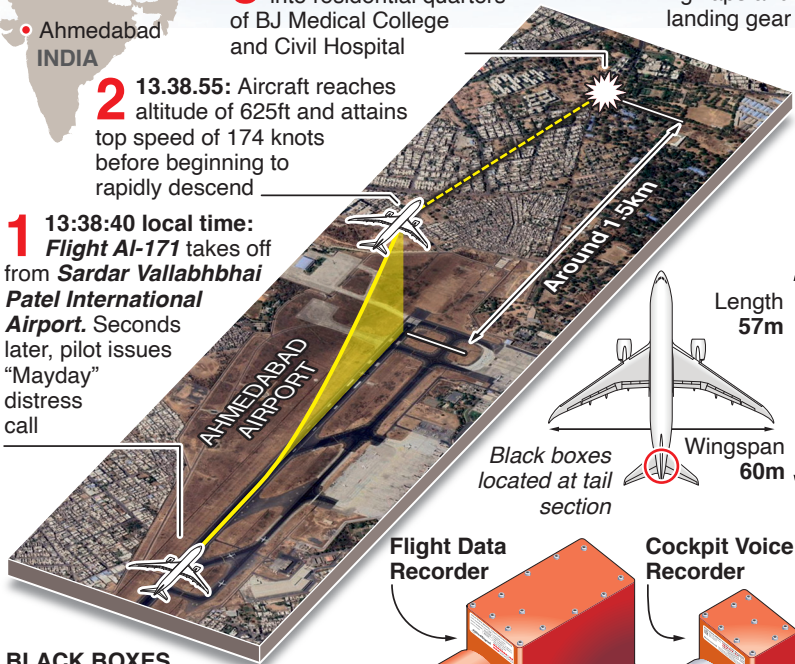

3 13:39:13: Plane crashes into residential quarters of BJ Medical College and Civil Hospital

2 13:38:55: Aircraft reaches altitude of 625ft and attains top speed of 174 knots before beginning to rapidly descend

1 13:38:40 local time: Flight AI-171 takes off from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International Airport. Seconds later, pilot issues "Mayday" distress call

Ahmedabad
INDIA

BLACK BOXES

Record flight parameters, cockpit sounds and conversations.

Can withstand impact 3,400 times force of gravity and temperatures up to 1,100°C

