

Palestine gains growing recognition

As outrage mounts over Israel's war in Gaza, a growing number of countries are preparing to recognise a Palestinian state at the UN General Assembly on September 9

FRANCE

First G7 nation to announce formal recognition of Palestinian state

President Emmanuel Macron

BRITAIN

Unless Israel agrees to ceasefire, relieves humanitarian crisis in Gaza

Prime Minister Keir Starmer

CANADA

Conditional on commitment by PA* to hold elections in 2026 without Hamas

Prime Minister Mark Carney

AUSTRALIA

Conditional on PA commitments including Hamas exclusion from government

Prime Minister Anthony Albanese

BELGIUM

Recognition and 12 "firm" sanctions to be imposed on Israel and Hamas

Prime Minister Bart De Wever

MALTA

First announced plans for unconditional recognition in May

Prime Minister Robert Abela