

Al Jazeera journalists killed in Gaza

Five Al Jazeera journalists including prominent reporter Anas al-Sharif have been killed in a targeted Israeli strike in Gaza City

■ Aug 10: Al Jazeera staff killed in strike on media tent near al-Shifa Hospital are (l to r) correspondents Anas al-Sharif and Mohammed Qreiqeh, cameramen Ibrahim Zaher and Moamen Aliwa and assistant Mohammed Noufal. Seven people killed in total

■ Israel Defence Forces (IDF) says it targeted al-Sharif, alleging he served as leader of Hamas terrorist cell. Al Jazeera and journalists' groups deny accusations

■ Committee to Protect Journalists (CPJ) says 186 journalists have been killed since start of Israel-Hamas conflict in Oct 2023, including at least 178 Palestinians killed by Israel

