

Spanish fires set emissions record

In just a week, wildfires in Spain have driven the country's emissions to the highest annual total since records began in 2003 – spreading high levels of carcinogenic PM_{2.5} particles for hundreds of kilometres

SPAIN DAILY TOTAL WILDFIRE EMISSIONS

(cumulative, million tonnes of carbon dioxide equivalent)

Sources: Copernicus Atmosphere Monitoring Service

Picture: Getty Images

© GRAPHIC NEWS