

U.S. Open 2025 preview

Aug 24-Sep 7, Flushing Meadows

World No.1 Jannik Sinner has built astonishing dominance on hard courts, with powerful baseline game, precise timing and strong serve. The Italian has secured victories in each of the last three hard court Grand Slams, winning 21 successive matches

Men: Hard court record 2024-25 Win ratio %

Jannik Sinner	ITA	Win-loss: 37-2	94.9
Carlos Alcaraz	ESP	37-9	80.4
Jack Draper	GBR	27-8	77.1
Alexander Zverev	GER	35-11	76.1
Novak Djokovic	SRB	20-7	74.1
Taylor Fritz	USA	37-16	69.8

Hard
court
titles /
Total titles

17	20
7	22
2	3
15	24
71	100
5	10

Arthur Ashe Stadium: Iconic headline court set for $800m renovation by 2027, ▲ increasing capacity, with striking Grand Entrance and modernised concourses

NEW ERA: Sinner and Carlos Alcaraz have shared last seven Grand Slam titles. Alcaraz leads pulsating head-to-head 9-5, including recent walk-over in Cincinnati

U.S. Open Sinner

beat Fritz, 6-3, 6-4, 7-5

Australian Open Sinner

bt Zverev, 6-3, 7-6, 6-3

Roland Garros Alcaraz

bt Sinner, 4-6, 6-7, 6-4, 7-6, 7-6

Wimbledon Sinner

bt Alcaraz, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4, 6-4

HOME SOIL: U.S. women have enjoyed stellar 2025, appearing in each major final. Coco Gauff (right) is eager for second U.S. Open crown, after victory in 2023

U.S. Open Arnya Sabalenka (-)

bt Jessica Pegula USA, 7-5, 7-5

Australian Open Madison Keys USA

bt Sabalenka, 6-3, 2-6, 7-5

Roland Garros Coco Gauff USA

bt Sabalenka, 6-7, 6-2, 6-4

Wimbledon Iga Swiatek POL

bt Amanda Anisimova USA, 6-0, 6-0

ROLL CALL OF CHAMPIONS

Novak Djokovic has reached record 10 finals from 18 previous appearances at U.S. Open, with chances of surpassing Margaret Court's all-time Grand Slam record – for men or women – diminishing rapidly

MOST CHAMPIONSHIPS (OPEN ERA)

2004-08	Roger Federer SUI	5 6	Chris Evert USA	1975-78, 80, 82
1990, 93, 95, 96, 2002	Pete Sampras USA	5 6	Serena Williams USA	1999, 2002, 08, 2012-14
1974, 76, 78, 82, 83	Jimmy Connors USA	5 5	Steffi Graf GER	1988, 89, 93, 95, 96
2011, 15, 18, 23	Novak Djokovic SRB	4 4	Martina Navratilova USA	1983, 84, 86, 87
2010, 13, 17, 19	Rafael Nadal ESP	4	Two-time champion Venus Williams is set to make emotional return at U.S. Open, after two-year absence, having received wildcard invitation
1979, 80, 81, 84	John McEnroe USA	4		