

Dembélé and Bonmati win Ballons d'Or

Striking sensation Ousmane Dembélé claimed his first Ballon d'Or after guiding PSG to their maiden European crown. Barcelona midfielder Aitana Bonmati wins her third successive women's title

DEMBÉLÉ 2024-25

53 Matches

35 Goals

16 Assists

MEN		BALLON D'OR 2025: TOP FIVE		WOMEN
Ousmane Dembélé FRA		PSG		Aitana Bonmatí ESP
Lamine Yamal ESP		Barcelona		Mariona Caldentey ESP
Vitinha POR		PSG		Alessia Russo ENG
Mohamed Salah EGY		Liverpool		Alexia Putellas ESP
Raphinha BRA		Barcelona		Chloe Kelly ENG
				Man City / Arsenal

BALLON D'OR AWARDS BY NATION

Dembélé is sixth different French player to win award, emulating Karim Benzema and Zinedine Zidane

1	France	6 players		8
2	Argentina	1		8
3	Germany	5		7
4	Netherlands	3		7
5	Portugal	3		7

Other winners include Spanish talent Lamine Yamal – scooping second Kopa Trophy as best player aged under 21 – coaches Luis Enrique and Sarina Wiegman, and goalkeepers Gianluigi Donnarumma and Hannah Hampton