

Moldova's pro-EU party wins majority

The pro-European party of Moldovan President Maia Sandu has claimed victory and a new majority in parliament in elections seen as critical for her country's future path to the EU

PRELIMINARY RESULTS (98% of votes counted)

Party of Action
and Solidarity (PAS)

50.14

Patriotic Electoral Bloc
(pro-Russia)

24.2

Turnout: 52.17%
(1.6 million votes)

Maia Sandu's PAS outperformed rivals in ballot mired by fears of Russian interference, leaving EU candidate country that borders Ukraine on path towards European integration

Alternativa
bloc

7.97

Our Party

6.21

Democracy
at Home

5.62

Others

6.0

SEATS IN PARLIAMENT (based on preliminary results)

Party of Action
and Solidarity
(PAS)

55

Patriotic
Electoral Bloc
26

Our Party
6

Alternativa
bloc
8

Democracy
at Home
6

Total seats
101

