

LEGO's first $1,000 set goes on sale

LEGO's most expensive ever model set has been released – a giant cross-section through the Death Star, taken from sci-fi blockbuster Star Wars: A New Hope, and featuring many notable locations

LEGO Death Star – Ultimate Collector Series

For ages: 18+
Set number: 75419
Pieces: 9,023
Minifigures: 38***
Weight: 8.6kg
Diameter: 79cm

Price:
$1,000 (U.S.)
$1,300 (CAN)
$1,500 (AUS)
€1,000 (EU)
£900 (UK)

Mk1 Superlaser array

Princess Leia
detention block

Trash
Compactor

Hot Tub Stormtrooper†
and many other Easter eggs are hidden all over set

*That's no moon.
It's a LEGO set!*

Emperor Palpatine
throne room

Tractor beam terminal

Darth Vader
meditation chamber

Control room

Hangar bay with Imperial Shuttle

Early adopters who buy directly from LEGO will receive free
TIE Fighter
designed for set

†Joke feature hidden in numerous LEGO Star Wars video games

*Highest ever for a set Sources: LEGO, Brickset Pictures: © Disney, LEGO © GRAPHIC NEWS