

Trump outraged by Canada TV advert

In a seemingly furious social media post, U.S. President Trump ends trade negotiations with Canada after being offended by a TV commercial that criticises the tariffs he's imposed on the country

Watch ad online: bit.ly/477C6LV

Commercial: 60 seconds, featuring emotive imagery of American society overlaid by selected segments from 1987 radio address about fair trade by then President Ronald Reagan

Watch speech online: bit.ly/4hqFAwg

ANGRY REACTION FROM TRUMP

Donald J. Trump
@realDonaldTrump

TRUTH

Based on their [Canada's] egregious behavior, ALL TRADE NEGOTIATIONS WITH CANADA ARE HEREBY TERMINATED. Thank you for your attention to this matter! President DJT

BIGGEST BUYERS OF U.S. GOODS

When someone says, "Let's impose tariffs on foreign imports," it looks like they're doing the patriotic thing by protecting American products and jobs.

And sometimes, for a short while, it works, but only for a short time.

But over the long run, such trade barriers hurt every American worker and consumer.

High tariffs inevitably lead to retaliation by foreign countries and the triggering of fierce trade wars.

Then the worst happens – markets shrink and collapse, businesses and industries shut down, and millions of people lose their jobs.

Throughout the world, there's a growing realisation that the way to prosperity for all nations is rejecting protectionist legislation and promoting fair and free competition.

America's jobs and growth are at stake.

Note: Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation and Institute says ad misrepresents radio address and was used without permission

Sources: BBC, Bloomberg, X, Truth Social, YouTube, Ronald Reagan Presidential Library

Pictures: Government of Ontario, Ronald Reagan Presidential Library, Truth Social © GRAPHIC NEWS