

Epstein files could reveal web of connections

Jeffrey Epstein's contacts, including Presidents Trump and Clinton, billionaires, celebrities and royalty – most not implicated in his crimes – are anxiously awaiting the release of files related to the late sex offender

Jeffrey Epstein

Dies in prison Aug 10, 2019 while awaiting trial on sex trafficking charges

Admitted to hospital in July with unexplained injuries to neck – doubts remain over suicide verdict

Andrew Mountbatten-Windsor

Former UK royal
Accused by victim Virginia Giuffre

Bill Richardson

Former Governor of New Mexico
Accused by Giuffre

Lord Peter Mandelson

Former UK Ambassador to U.S.
Sacked for ongoing links to Epstein

Larry Summers

Former U.S. Treasury Secretary
Withdraws from public commitments

Jes Staley

Formerly JPMorgan Chase and Barclays
Banned from senior positions

JPMorganChase

JPMorgan Chase

Settles out of court with U.S. Virgin Islands
No liability admitted

President Donald Trump

Epstein described himself as "closest friend", fell out in 2004 over real estate deal

Appearances in passenger logs of Epstein's planes

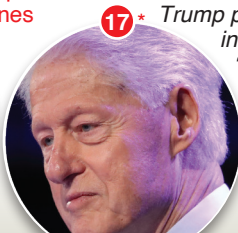

7

President Bill Clinton

Trump pushing for DoJ investigation into "Bubba's" links. Denies any knowledge of crimes

17*

Al Gore

Former Vice President

Steve Bannon

One-time Trump strategist

Michael Wolff

Author of books on Trump

Ehud Barak

Former Prime Minister of Israel

Noam Chomsky

Liberal academic

Peter Thiel

Silicon Valley billionaire

Lawrence Krauss

Theoretical physicist

Kevin Spacey

Actor

Alan Dershowitz

Lawyer

Sultan Ahmed bin Sulayem

Businessman

David Copperfield

Magician

Michael Jackson

Musician

*According to Clinton spokesperson, number disputed