

India's financial capital gets new airport

Flights from the new Navi Mumbai International Airport will take off on Dec 25, easing pressure on the financial centre's 80-year old terminal and giving a further boost to the massive growth in Indian aviation

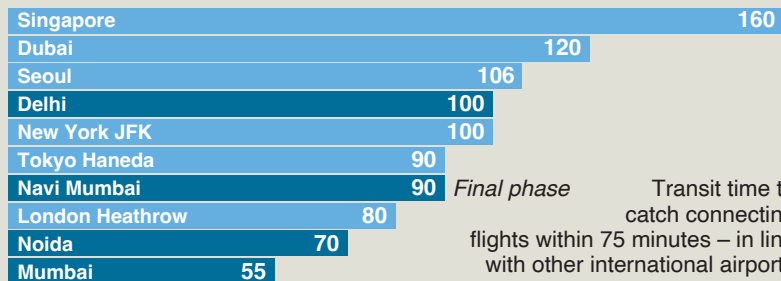

INDIAN AIR PASSENGER TRAFFIC* (millions)

India has become third largest domestic aviation market, after US and China

INTERNATIONAL HUBS

Final phase

Transit time to catch connecting flights within 75 minutes – in line with other international airports