

Deadly storms ravage southern Asia

More than 1,100 people are dead, hundreds more missing and millions affected by a band of cyclones and extreme monsoonal weather across four Asian countries

Thailand: At least 176 people killed. Southern province of Songkhla hardest-hit

CHINA

500km
310 miles

South China Sea

INDIA

INDIAN OCEAN

Cyclone
Ditwah

Bangkok

Malaysia: Three people killed. Large parts of Perlis state inundated

Cyclone
Senyar

Aceh

North Sumatra

West Sumatra

Kuala Lumpur

MALAYSIA

INDONESIA

Jakarta

Sri Lanka
At least 355 people killed across island

Indonesia: More than 600 people killed. Three provinces devastated by floods and landslides on Sumatra island

— Path of recent storm

Note: Death toll as of 14:00GMT Dec 1