

BYD tops Tesla as world's biggest EV maker

Despite a fourth consecutive month of declining sales – in which a challenging domestic market contrasts with surging global sales – Chinese carmaker BYD has become the world's largest EV company

BYD SALES 2025

China Up 3%

Slow domestic growth amid increased competition and regulatory scrutiny

International Up 151%
