

Trump flexes tariff threat over Greenland

U.S. President Donald Trump says he will charge a new 10% levy on goods imported from key European allies because of their opposition to his proposed takeover of the autonomous Danish territory

Jan 17: Trump (right) says 10% tariff would take effect on Feb 1 "on any and all goods" sent to U.S. from eight countries, but rate could rise to 25% on Jun 1 if no deal was reached for "the Complete and Total purchase of Greenland"
