Player dispute overshadows Roland Garros

The world's leading tennis players are continuing to demand a greater share of Grand Slam revenues, with prize money currently accounting for an average of only 15% of tournament income

ROLAND GARROS: PRIZE MONEY PROGRESSION 2011-2026 (€m)

Men's and women's singles champions will each receive €2.8m, but players say increase is not reflective of tournament revenue (€395m in 2025)

ATP and WTA events offer players 22% share of revenue
