Indomitable Sinner chases history

World No.1 Jannik Sinner, 24, is on an impressive trajectory to challenge the achievements of the sport's all-time greats, with the Italian heading into Roland Garros in Paris as tournament favourite

HOW SINNER COMPARES TO BIG THREE AT SAME AGE:

Titles	Sinner	Djokovic	Nadal	Federer
Australian Open	2	3	1	2
Roland Garros	0	0	5	0
Wimbledon	1	1	2	3
U.S. Open	1	1	1	2
Indian Wells	1	2	2	3
Miami	2	3	0	2
Monte-Carlo	1	0	6	0
Madrid	1	1	2	3
Rome	1	2	5	0
Canada	1	2	2	1
Cincinnati	1	0	0	1
Shanghai	1	0	1	0
Paris	1	1	0	0
ATP Tour Finals	2	1	0	2
Olympics	0	0	1	0
Total	16	17	28	19

◆ At Roland Garros, Sinner could become only 10th man to complete career Grand Slam by winning all four majors, leaving Olympic gold as sole missing honour in full collection of individual tennis titles

Longest Masters 1000 winning streaks:

Jannik Sinner	2025-date	34 matches
Novak Djokovic	2011	31
Djokovic	2014-15	30
Roger Federer	2005-06	29
Djokovic	2013-14	23
Rafael Nadal	2013	23

◆ Sinner has ample headroom at top of ATP Rankings, with closest challenger Carlos Alcaraz over 2,500pts behind

◆ 2026 titles include Indian Wells, Miami, Monte-Carlo, Madrid and Rome

◆ Sinner has secured victories in 36 of 38 matches this season – defeated by only Djokovic in Australian Open semi-finals and Jakub Mensik in Doha

Sources: ATP, BBC | Picture: Getty Images | © GRAPHIC NEWS