Israel and Iran strikes risk fragile ceasefire

Israel and Iran have exchanged fire in retaliatory strikes, putting their already fragile truce in serious jeopardy and threatening to reignite full-scale regional war

1 Lebanon: Israeli airstrikes hit southern Beirut in response to alleged attacks by Iranian-backed Hezbollah on Israel

2 Israel: Iran fires missiles at Israeli targets in retaliation, putting U.S.-Iran peace talks at risk

3 Iran: Israeli forces launch strikes on Iranian military targets and petrochemical plant

4 Yemen: Iran-backed Houthi rebels announce missile attack on Israel and declare ban on Israeli shipping in Red Sea
