NATO European members to spend $50 billion

NATO's European members announced "staggering" increases in defence spending – worth over $50 billion – despite cracks in the alliance triggered by the U.S. war in Iran and claims on Greenland

DEEP PRECISION STRIKE MISSILE PROJECT
$50 billion Suite of high-precision weapons, range 300-2,000km

SAAB GLOBALEYE Up to 10 aircraft at $400-450 million each
To replace AWACs

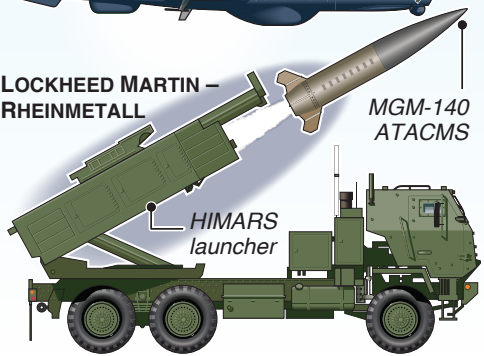

NORTHROP GRUMMAN MQ4C TRITON
Up to five large UAVs

AIRBUS A400M
Strategic fleet of transport planes

LOCKHEED MARTIN – RHEINMETALL

Joint venture to produce Army Tactical Missile System (ATACMS) short-range ballistic missile in Germany, first time outside U.S.

ISAR AEROSPACE
Orbital launch readiness at Spaceport Nova Scotia

Sources: Reuters, UK Government

© GRAPHIC NEWS