10,000 killed by Europe heatwave

Data from EuroMOMO, an excess mortality monitoring network, shows that 10,000 people died across Europe in June as a direct result of that month's unusually fierce heatwave

* Data from 27 participating countries: Austria, Belgium, Cyprus, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Latvia, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and UK (England, Northern Ireland, Scotland, Wales)

Sources: Reuters, EuroMOMO Picture: Alexander Grey (Unsplash) © GRAPHIC NEWS