Premier League enters new era

The Premier League's managerial landscape has been transformed, with a record nine clubs appointing new permanent managers before the season kicks off, surpassing the previous high of eight in 2016

FRESH FACES: Enzo Maresca (right) succeeds Pep Guardiola's trophy-laden dynasty at Man City, while Andoni Iraola begins life at Liverpool

	Club	Appointed
Marco Rose	Bournemouth	Jun 1, 2026
Andoni Iraola	Liverpool	Jun 4
Pierre Sage	Crystal Palace	Jun 15
Gary O'Neil	Ipswich Town	Jun 23
Enzo Maresca	Man City	Jun 29
Xabi Alonso	Chelsea	Jul 1
Oliver Glasner	Notts. Forest	Jul 6
Alvaro Arbeloa	Fulham	Jul 7
Matthias Jaissle	Newcastle Utd	Aug 5

LEADING TENURES: Despite being appointed only in 2019, Arsenal's Mikel Arteta is Premier League's longest-serving manager

	Club	Appointed	Time in post (days)*
Mikel Arteta	Arsenal	Dec 22, 2019	2434
Unai Emery	Aston Villa	Nov 1, 2022	1389
Daniel Farke	Leeds United	Jul 4, 2023	1144
Régis Le Bris	Sunderland	Jul 1, 2024	781
Fabian Hurzeler	Brighton	Jul 2, 2024	780
Frank Lampard	Coventry City	Nov 28, 2024	631
David Moyes	Everton	Jan 11, 2025	587
Sergej Jakirovic	Hull City	Jun 11, 2025	436
Keith Andrews	Brentford	Jun 27, 2025	420
Michael Carrick	Man Utd	Jan 13, 2026	220
Roberto De Zerbi	Tottenham	Mar 31, 2026	143

26 Titles won. First season since 1985 without Sir Alex Ferguson, Arsene Wenger, Jose Mourinho, Jurgen Klopp or Pep Guardiola in Premier League dugout

Source: BBC Picture: Newscom *To Aug 21, date of new Premier League season © GRAPHIC NEWS