Support and opposition split over Infantino

FIFA President Gianni Infantino has shown no desire to relinquish power – any candidate seeking to mount a challenge in next March's election must declare their candidacy by November

U.S. President Donald Trump has defended Infantino, amid reports that relation Joshua Kushner may have been among lead investors in abandoned FIFA Forward Enterprise proposal

Assumed oppose and assumed support based on statements by continental confederations

Support | Assumed support | Undecided | Assumed oppose | Oppose

Confederation votes

Europe	55
Africa	54
Asia	46
N. America	35
Oceania	11
S. America	10

FIFA elections between only two candidates require simple majority – total of 106 votes are required to win

Governing bodies of Europe, North America and Asia issue open letter accusing Infantino of breaking trust "through deception"

Source: BBC
Picture: Getty Images

© GRAPHIC NEWS