Nepal devastation caused by glacier collapse

Rescuers are searching for over 1,000 missing people after a deadly flash flood on the Nepal-Tibet border. Experts believe it may have been triggered when the lower part of a glacier collapsed

Red Cross & Red Crescent: $1.24 million emergency funds

China: Emergency supplies and cash assistance

India: 10 tons disaster-relief supplies and medicines

WHO: Emergency medical supplies, multipurpose tents

U.S.: Disaster response adviser, $500,000 funds

UK: Emergency responders and £5 million suport package

Sources: Reuters, BBC, New York Times

Picture: Copernicus

© GRAPHIC NEWS