Premier League breaks transfer record

Total expenditure by Premier League clubs during the summer transfer window has reached a record £3.46bn – breaking the record for a second successive year and dwarfing spending levels from just five years ago

Premier League Summer Spending (£bn)

Enzo Fernández, Manchester City: *Joined for joint-British record of £125m. This summer, 11 of 20 Premier League clubs broke their transfer records, with 35% of deals completed between league rivals. Man City splurged most, spending £458m

Most Expensive Premier League Transfers

Enzo Fernández	2026	Chelsea	Man City	£125.0m
Alexander Isak	2025	Newcastle	Liverpool	£125.0m
Bradley Barcola	2026	PSG	Liverpool	£123.0m
Morgan Rogers	2026	Aston Villa	Chelsea	£117.0m
Florian Wirtz	2025	Leverkusen	Liverpool	£116.5m

Sources: BBC, Sky Sports

Picture: Getty Images

© GRAPHIC NEWS