Princess Diana's iconic "revenge dress" up for auction

The most famous little black dress in royal history, worn by Diana for her dramatic arrival at London's Serpentine Gallery in 1994, is expected to sell for up to £220,000 when auctioned by Sotheby's later this year

GLOBAL EXHIBITION SCHEDULE

| | |
|---|---|
| London | September 18-24 |
| Hong Kong | October 1-15 |
| Geneva | November 6-11 |
| New York | December 2-8 |
| Auction | December 9 |

- Black silk evening dress by Greek designer Christina Stambolian, accessorised with royal jewel, black clutch and black pumps
- Dress was last displayed at Paisley Museum after being bought at Diana's 1997 auction, where she sold 79 dresses to raise funds for charities
- According to her stylist, Anna Harvey, Diana simply "wanted to look a million dollars"

Warm & Wonderful, 1981 Princess Diana's sweater featuring black sheep among rows of white ones sold for £920,000 at Sotheby's auction (2023)

Sotheby's

Sources: Sotheby's, BBC Pictures: Sotheby's, Getty Images

© GRAPHIC NEWS