

Global illicit drug trends

Almost one in 20 people over the age of 15 abuses illicit drugs. Cannabis is used by some 163 million people and amphetamines – including ecstasy – by 34 million. Opium and heroin is abused by about 15 million people and cocaine by 14 million, according to the UN's Global Illicit Drug Trends 2003

Drug production by region

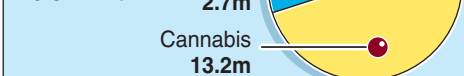

Users by region

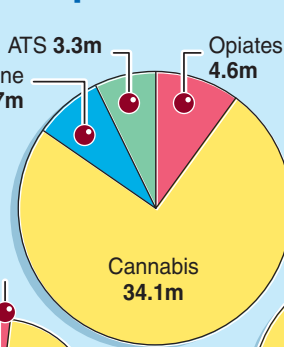

North America

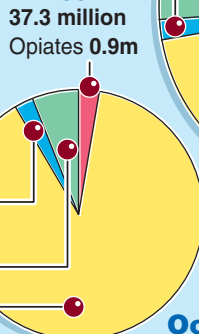

South America

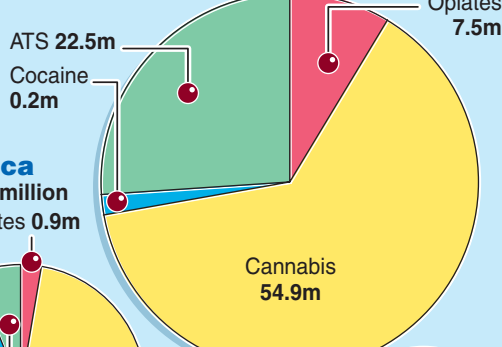

Europe

Africa

Asia

Oceania

