▲ 1945: Jewish diarist Anne Frank died in the concentration camp at Bergen-Belsen, just a month before it was liberated by British troops

1904: The first main-line electric train in Britain left Liverpool for Southport

1925: Chinese revolutionary leader Sun Yat-sen, known as the father of modern China, died

1979: Sir Erik Gairy, prime minister of Grenada, and his government were overthrown and replaced by Maurice Bishop of the New Jewel Movement

2005: Bode Miller became the first American in 22 years to win the overall men's World Cup skiing title

Picture: Associated Press   © GRAPHIC NEWS