Canadian election

Stephen Harper and his right-wing Conservative Party have won Canada's national elections, ending 12-plus years of Liberal rule.

Seats won in the 308-member lower House of Commons. A party must win 155 seats to form a majority government

Conservatives
125 seats

Liberals
102

Bloc Quebecois
51

New Democrats
29