

Tuesday, July 4

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2004: The cornerstone of the 1,776ft-tall Freedom Tower, designed to take the place of the twin towers of the destroyed World Trade Center, was ceremonially laid in New York

1829: Britain's first regular scheduled bus service, drawn by horses, began running in London

1848: The Communist Manifesto was published by Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels

1924: The original caesar salad was created in Mexico

1979: Ahmed Ben Bella, Algeria's first president, was freed 14 years after being overthrown in a coup