

Sunday, July 23

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2004: An exact replica of the 400-year-old Ottoman bridge in Mostar was reopened. The original was destroyed during the Bosnian war

1840: Upper and Lower Canada were formally united by an act passed in the British Parliament

1904: The ice cream cone reputedly made its first appearance in St Louis

1967: British cyclist Tom Simpson collapsed and died during one of the mountain stages of the Tour de France

2005: Terrorists detonated three bombs in the Egyptian resort of Sharm el-Sheik, killing more than 80 people, including many tourists