

Europe accused of CIA prison flight collusion

A human rights watchdog report sparked angry denials and dismissals after more than 20 countries – at least 14 of them in Europe – were accused of collusion in a network of secret CIA flights carrying terror suspects to illegal detention centres for interrogation

Boeing 737: Registration number N313P – highlighted in report as example of aircraft allegedly used to transfer terror suspects

- ★ Operations launched
- ✈ Refuelling stops
- Council of Europe members
- 👤 Detainees picked up
- 👤 Detention facilities
- Other countries named

