

Europe's alleged role in CIA prison flights

The EU's top justice official has called for national inquiries by European states accused – in a recent Council of Europe human rights report – of collusion with alleged secret CIA flights carrying terror suspects to illegal detention centres for interrogation

Boeing 737: Registration number N313P – highlighted in report as example of aircraft allegedly used to transfer terror suspects

- ★ Operations launched
- ✈ Refuelling stops
- Council of Europe members
- 👤 Detainees picked up
- 👤 Detention facilities
- Others allegedly involved

