

Sunday, August 13

ON THIS DAY

▲ 2004: The start of the Athens Olympics was overshadowed when Greek sprint stars Costas Kenteris and Ekaterina Thanou missed drugs tests and then claimed to have been involved in a motorbike accident

1826: French physician Rene Laennec, inventor of the stethoscope, died

1913: Archbishop Makarios, the first president of Cyprus, was born

1923: Mustafa Kemal Ataturk was elected President of Turkey

1996: Data sent back by the Galileo space probe indicated there could be water on one of Jupiter's moons