

Spanish Civil War 1936-1939

In July 1936, a right-wing nationalist revolt by the army against the left-wing Republican government led to civil war. The conflict became an ideological battleground for individuals and governments beyond Spain, and introduced a new and brutal form of warfare that would come to define the 20th century

COMBATANTS

REPUBLICANS

Government, led by Socialist premiers Largo Caballero and Juan Negrín, and liberal president Manuel Azaña (left). Supported by urban workers, majority of educated middle class, and militant communists and anarchists

NATIONALISTS

Led by rebel army and supported by conservative clergy and landowners as well as fascist Falange

FOREIGN AID: Both Fascist Italy under Benito Mussolini and Nazi Germany under Adolf Hitler sent troops, tanks, and planes, using Spain as testing ground for new methods of warfare

General Francisco Franco: Leader of Nationalist forces

FOREIGN AID: Due to arms embargo by France and Britain, government could receive aid and purchase arms only from Soviet Union.

Aid included planes, trained pilots, tanks and crew

Soviet T-26

International Brigades:

Up to 60,000 volunteers fought in Spain against Fascism, including U.S. Abraham Lincoln Brigade (below)

Prominent intellectuals on Republican side included American novelist Ernest Hemingway, British author George Orwell (left), and French writer André Malraux

George Orwell (left), and

French writer André Malraux

Guernica, Apr 26, 1937: First town in history to have been entirely destroyed by aerial bombing. City attacked by unit of German air force's Condor Legion

German Junker 52/3

Area conquered by Nationalists

- July 1936
- Aug 1936-Oct 1937
- 1938
- Jan-Feb 1939

Main battles

- Main Nationalist offensives
- Main bombings of civilians

KEY EVENTS

- 1931: Second Spanish Republic proclaimed. Alfonso XIII abdicates
- 1936, Feb: Left-wing party coalition regains power from right in elections
- Jul 17-18: Army uprising – rebels gain control over about one third of Spain
- Jul 28: Italian and German planes airlift Franco's army from Spanish Morocco to mainland in first significant military airlift in history
- Nov: Republican forces withstand major Nationalist offensive on Madrid following arrival of aid from Soviet Union and International Brigades
- 1937, Jan-Mar: Despite support from Italian troops, Franco fails to capture Madrid in two separate offensives

- Apr: Guernica destroyed
- May: Infighting among Republican groups in Barcelona weakens city
- Jun: Bilbao falls to Nationalists
- Jul: Nationalists repulse Republican counter-offensive at Brunete
- Oct: Gijón falls – war in North ends
- 1938, Feb-Apr: After battle for Teruel, Nationalists reach Mediterranean, cutting Republican zone in two
- Jul-Nov: Battle of Ebro – Republican forces launch all-out, but unsuccessful, campaign to reconnect territory
- 1939, Jan-Feb: Nationalists conquer Catalonia in whirlwind campaign
- Mar 27: Madrid falls to Nationalists
- Apr 1: Nationalist victory proclaimed

Up to one million people thought to have died – many as result of mass killings perpetrated by both sides